

On line store for Handmade products

Proect Brief

PREPARED BY LANA MUSTAFA
APR,19,2021

BRIEF::

An online store to support a group of women who create their own products by marketing these products online in an easy and effective way.

this idea came up after the covid virus occurred and has caused in loss many of people their jobs so some people especially women have to make their own handmade products and contribute to cover their families expenses and this website is developed to be the best and most suitable place to market their products online under this difficult situations.